The Department of Asian American Graduate Concentration requires the completion of four graduate and/or upper division undergraduate courses as detailed below. The courses for the Graduate Concentration are taken in addition to the requirements of the student’s primary program, and must be completed before advancement to candidacy.

A. CONTACT INFORMATION

Name: ___________________________ Date: ______________

Last First Middle

Address: ___________________________

Street Apartment #

City: ___________________________ State: _________ Zip: __________

Phone: (______) _______ _______ UID: _______ _______ _______

B. ACADEMIC HISTORY

Department: ___________________________

Faculty advisor: _______________ Phone: __________ Email: _______________

Year in school:    □ 1st   □ 2nd    □ 3rd    □ other: _______________

Degree Objective: _______________ Advanced to candidacy?    □ Yes    □ No

I expect to graduate in:   □ Fall   □ Winter   □ Spring   □ Summer   Year: ________

C. RESEARCH: Briefly indicate (by topic or title) Asian American Studies course work and/or research you have undertaken or plan to undertake. Why do you want the concentration in Asian American Studies?

REQUIRED COURSE WORK

Concentration requires 4 AAS courses selected from the list below. All courses must be taken for a letter grade and completed before advancing to candidacy.

1. AAS 100-199. Undergraduate Upper Division Courses. No more than one class.
2. AAS 200 A, B, or D. Core Courses. No more than one class.
4. AAS 596. Individual Study. No more than one class.